Also Asserts High-Ranking Russian Officers Are Seen At Gibraltar

PRINCE BERNHARD WARNS NETHERLANDS

By CHARLES A. SMITH
(N. S. Staff Correspondent)
LONDON, June 21.—The invasion-jittery Axis reported today that an Allied fleet is massed off the Syrian coast ready to steam into action, and that high-ranking members of the Soviet general staff had arrived in Gibraltar for conferences with Allied Military leaders.

The German radio said United Nations warships have been concentrated off the coast of Syria in preparation for an amphibious attack on Axis-held objectives in the Aegean sea area, near Greece.
Indicating that the German high command also is expecting an Allied thrust into France, the Axis radio reported that extensive Nazi troop movements have been going on in France for the past few days. Quoting Swiss sources, the French station said German troops convoys were streaming down all roads toward the French coast.

Report Russian Officers Seen
The report that Russian army chiefs were at Gibraltar was carried by the official German news agency
DNB in a dispatch from La Linea, Spain. Sixteen Red army officers were seen walking the streets of Gibraltar in company of American and British military officers, the dispatch said.
The German agency did not give

Nearly Half Of Jap Planes Lost In Darwin Raid

Impressive Air Victory In Latest Battle With Japs
Scored By Allies

TWENTY-TWO JAP PLANES ARE LOST

By LEE VAN ATTA
(N. S. Staff Correspondent)
UNITED NATIONS HEAD-QUARTERS IN AUSTRALIA, June 21.—Nearly half of an attacking force of 48 Japanese bombers and fighter planes was knocked out of action in an impressive 11-to-1 Allied air victory announced today by Gen. Douglas MacArthur's headquarters.
As 28 enemy bombers escorted by 20 fighters approached Darwin, on the northern coast of Australia, they were engaged in furious combat near Cape Gamber by Allied fighter planes. When the battle was over, only two Allied planes were missing—but the Japs' losses were listed as 22 planes destroyed or damaged. Damage and casualties on the ground were minor, Gen.
MacArthur's communique said.
Six enemy bombers and three escorting fighter planes were seen to crash. Two bombers and a fighter were last seen falling in flames, and eight bombers and two fighters were smoking and losing altitude when last observed.

Raid On Rabaul
The communique also announced that another Allied air raid on Jap airstrips at Rabaul, enemy base on the northern tip of New Britain, second in importance in that area only to the big base in the Truk islands to the north.
Three airports at Rabaul, including the battered Vunakanau airfield, were blasted with 31 tons of explosive and incendiary bombs

Governors Are In Conference

Governor Bricker Of Ohio
Opens Sessions Being Held At Columbus

By CARL TURNER
(N. S. Staff Correspondent)
COLUMBUS, O., June 21.—State and local governments have not been used in the war program to the full extent of their ability or their desire to participate, Gov.
John W. Bricker of Ohio, declared today in opening business sessions of the 35th annual governors' conference.

"There have been superimposed upon state and local governments many national authorities when the job could have been done much better by the established governments," said Bricker on whose left sat Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York. Both are outstanding 1944
Republican presidential nominees.
"Sometimes the departmental authorities cooperate and utilize the state and local governments," continued Bricker. "Too many times we feel they work at cross purposes. Too many feel that because they represent the federal government their position is superior and paramount."

The Ohio governor said there was not a chief executive present who would not gladly give up the last vestige of his authority to win the war, but he said "such a situation will not confront us."
"This war can be more easily and quickly won," he said, "by using every governmental authority in the program. In fighting for the integrity of local and state governments, we are aiding in the job of winning the war."

Declare Martial Law In Certain Parts Of Detroit

Action Taken After Five Are Killed And Many Injured In Race Riots

THREE HUNDRED ARE UNDER ARREST

(International News Service)
DETROIT, June 21.—
Martial law was declared in certain sections today after five persons, including a police sergeant, were killed, approximately 200 were injured and nearly 300 arrested in race riots which terrorized Detroit.

Martial law was ordered after
Gov. Harry F. Kelly and state police Capt. Don S. Leonard had conferred with Mayor Edward Jeffries, Jr., when the riots were termed out of control.

The areas were placed under the control of state troops who since early morning had been waiting call. They had mobilized, hours ago fully armed and equipped.

Under Armed Supervision
Certain sections in the east side of the city, and parts of the business district, where roving mobs had wrecked automobiles, smashed store fronts and generally terrorized the whole populace, were placed under armed supervision.

The order came after 2,000 white people, enraged by assaults on policemen, civilians and members of the armed forces, gathered in a principal downtown street and burned an apartment building and its Negro owner from the scene.
Before the martial order went into effect 3,500 city policemen had battled roving bands of Negro destructionists who shot, stoned and

Gilbert Islands Base Is Blasted

By JOSEPH A. BORS
(N. S. Staff Correspondent)
WASHINGTON, June 21.—Another smashing air attack by long range U. S. Army bombers against the important Jap base at Tarawa in the Gilbert Islands of the South Pacific was reported today by the U. S. Navy.

"A number of hits were scored on the enemy positions," the navy said.
"Although seven enemy Zero fighters were in the air over Tarawa, they did not press a determined attack against the U. S. bombers."

The assault was synchronized with another raid the same night, June 18-19, against Nauru Island, 420 miles southwest of Tarawa, indicating the widening scope of America's sky offensive against Japan.

Communist Wins In Decision By Supreme Court

WASHINGTON, June 21.—The Supreme Court today ruled that citizenship of Communists cannot be revoked on the ground that they favor overthrow of the government by force and violence.
The action came when the Supreme Court reversed the Lower Courts in the case of William Scheideman, Pacific coast communist, whose naturalization was cancelled by a Federal District Court 13 years after he had been made a citizen. Scheideman had

Crippling Raids Are Continued By Allied Fliers

Messina Ferry Terminal
And Air Bases In Sicily
Are Hammered

NO LETUP IN BOMB RAIDS ON ISLANDS

By PIERRE J. HUSS
(N. S. Staff Correspondent)

ALLIED HEADQUAR-TERS, In North Africa,
June 21.—Crippling raids on the Sicilian ferry terminal of Messina and three Axis airstrips on the invasion-threatened island were announced today by Gen.
Dwight D. Eisenhower's
headquarters as the Allies pressed their campaign to batter down Italian defenses.
Messina, just across the Straits of Messina from the Italian mainland, was pounded by British Wellington bombers Saturday night in the wake of mass American Libera-tor raids on the Italian ports of Reggio di Calabria and San Giovanni.

No Letup In Attacks Maintaining the pre-invasion offensive without letup, American Marauder bombers and Lightning fighters yesterday smashed at the important Sicilian airfields of Cas-telvetrano, Berizzo and Milo.

The Messina ferry terminus and industrial and dock installations received direct bomb hits in the night assault, the official communique said. Barracks, administrative buildings and dispersal areas were punished by the American medium bombers and fighters in daylight raids on the three Sicilian fields.

Sixteen Axis planes were shot down during the raids, the communique said, announcing that five Allied planes failed to return.
Eisenhower's headquarters also announced that an Allied plane reported missing from operations on June 18 landed on a "friendly airfield" and the crew is safe.

linking the bomb-battered island of Sicily with the Italian mainland,

U. S. Bombers Hit Jap Base 660 Miles Northeast Of Guadalcanal

MAJOR EVENTS ARE NOW FORESHADOWED

By JOSEPH A. BORS
(N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, June 21.—The rising tide of American air power in the Pacific surged ahead today against Japan's forward bases with increasing fury that foreshadowed major events.

Growing strength of America's air forces was indicated by devastating raids in the south Pacific shortly after U. S. aircraft destroyed 94 out of 120 Jap planes that raided
Guadalcanal.

Hit Nauru Island
The Navy's latest report said that American bombers struck at Jap installations in the central and northern Solomons, while others hit Nauru Island, 660 miles northeast of Guadalcanal.

"Large oil fires were started and a considerable amount of damage was caused in the dispersal area and among living quarters," the Navy said in reporting the Nauru attack.

Hull Confident Red Army Will Stay Unbeaten

Any New Attack By Nazis

SECOND ANNIVERSARY OF ATTACK ON RUSSIA

WASHINGTON, June 22.—Confidence that Soviet Russia's armies will "hurl back" any new attack by the Nazis to knock Russia out of the war this year was expressed today by Secretary of State Cordell Hull.

In a formal statement issued on the eve of the second anniversary

Strike Will Hit War Production

Disastrous Reduction In Steel Production Predict-
From Third Coal
Strike

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, June 21.—Amid predictions of a swift and likely disastrous reduction in the output of critically-needed steel, a quarter of a million United Mine workers in Western Pennsylvania and adjacent West Virginia's soft coal fields today defiantly pushed ahead with their third wartime walkout in less than two months.

The mining of bituminous coal began coming to a complete standstill in this area as the traditional battleground of "no contract, no work" permeated the fields at the end of the latest strike. Vast rows of empty coal cars and deserted shafts dotted the section.

The work stoppage was orderly and accompanied by no violence, much in the same fashion as the men walked out of the pits in their two previous strikes last month.
But production experts were quick to see one important difference.

With virtually all reserves of coal and its residue, coke, depleted by the initial strikes, the present halt in mining was expected to hit the vast steel industry based in the Pittsburgh district with a swiftness and severity unknown in previous labor disputes.

sociation in the three counties of Lawrence, Butler and Beaver, the bulk of whom reside in Lawrence county.

The pooling will start at Butler on Wednesday, when members from Butler county will present their wool at the B. & O. station there.

On Thursday, members of the association in Butler county, residing nearer New Castle, those from Butler county and North Beaver township in Lawrence county will bring their wool to the B. & O. station here, and on Friday, the balance of the county will be served.
The hours will be from 7:30 a. m.
until 4 p. m. on Wednesday and Thursday, and 7:30 a. m. to 3 p. m.

President Gives No Indication Of Possible Action

Grave Crisis Threatens Nation's Entire War Production By Third
Strike

NO ACTION YET ON ANTI-STRIKE BILL

By PHILLIPS J. PECK
(N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, June 21.—President Roosevelt today maintained silence on the paralyzing general coal strike giving no indication as to how he proposed to meet this latest and gravest crisis threatening the nation's entire war production program.

Twelve hours after the 540,000 members of John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers Union stopped work for the third time within seven weeks, the government showed no signs of accepting or rejecting the UMW's offer to return to the pits and mine coal for the government itself. Nor was there any indications as to how it would meet the challenge of keeping the mines open.

No News
Stephen Early, press secretary to President Roosevelt, told reporters at his news conference:

"I have no news on any subject, including the strike."
Early's declaration left in doubt the fate of the drastic Connally anti-strike bill which Mr. Roosevelt has had on his desk unsigned for more than a week. There was no indication as to whether the president would invoke the harsh penalties of this measure to end the disastrous stoppage of coal production. The deadline for signing the measure is midnight, June 25.

Ickes Also Silent
Apparently the first official move in the strike was due from Secretary of Interior Harold L. Ickes, who has been custodian of the mines since May first, when the government seized them. Ickes too kept silent, however, on Lewis' offer to negotiate with him on a working arrangement to send the miners back to the pits.

UMW international headquarters
also stated they had no news

Hitler's U-Boat Campaign Is Being Blocked

NEW YORK, June 21.—The successful, smashing U-boat counteroffensive in the North Atlantic, just announced from London, is proof positive that Hitler's undersea attacks are being slowly but surely eliminated from the war picture.
Corporal Hitler, like his predecessor Kaiser Wilhelm, pinned his final hopes on submarine offensives.
His hopes were and are in vain.

slowly and they need a lot of sun, but when June is doing nobly and the time for arms to limber and for

of much activity at noon today as the equipment of the Blood Donor of the American Red Cross was being the first of local blood donors at 1:15.

Alken Coal company, of 1232 Croton avenue, reported that The News today, that a carrier pigeon came to their place, which bore a band with a number and the words, Pittsburgh, Pa., on it. The pigeon evidently became exhausted while on a training flight.

Uniforms were seen in profusion on New Castle streets Saturday night. Men from Transfer, Shipperly Rock, Grove City and New Wil-ning, and in some cases for the week-end. The USO saw a lot of them, and the Rainbow Terrace in Cascade Park had many of them as guests.

Increasing number of reports of boys and girls being hurt in bicycle accidents here emphasizes the need for more care and attention to safety on the part of riders. Bicycle

WOMEN PLANE BUILDERS

HOW important and dependable is the work of women in the construction of airplanes for the war was strikingly emphasized by two speakers before the American Society of Mechanical Engineers at Los Angeles.

At the plant of the Consolidated Vultee Aircraft corporation in San Diego, where 45 per cent of employees are women, the industrial relations experts found women more susceptible to fatigue than men and in need of more frequent rest periods. But, it was explained: "They also found that women were deft in handling small assemblies, that they resisted monotony well and that they were accurate and careful in their work. . . . Management redesigned many of its tools to eliminate the need for sheer strength in their operation and revised its construction procedure to throw complicated structures into simple sub-assemblies."

At the Ford Willow Run bomber plant women have readily mastered spot welding, the engineers were told, and their work is regarded as "satisfactory" in such unlikely vocations as tinsmith, locksmith, plumber and cabinetmaker. It is surprising to learn that only half of them look upon their new activities as only for the duration and many hope to continue indefinitely. That their expectations may be justified is held to be probable in this comment of a Ford speaker: "On fine bench work, such as electrical assemblies, they are even superior to men. . . . In the class room women could not grasp the idea until they were taken into the shop and shown the item under discussion."

While mechanical theory is not a strong point with women who have never had occasion to go beyond the stage of operating a vacuum cleaner, when it becomes a question of "learning by doing," almost universal testimony is that they prove to be adepts.

NEW YEAR FOR FIGHTING FRENCH

Three years ago, in France's darkest hour, one voice was heard from out the abyss of disaster proclaiming proudly that "French resistance must not die."

The voice was that of General Charles de Gaulle and his announcement marked the birth of the Free French movement that was for so long the repository of all hopes for liberation.

Too much honor cannot be paid this courageous soldier who refused to submit to the conqueror. He resisted when the going was the toughest of all, and he cannot be blamed for looking with a cold eye at erstwhile collaborationists now waving the tri-color only because the tide has turned in favor of the Allies.

The third anniversary of the Free—or Fighting—French sees a great change in the world situation since 1940. In territory of their own, French forces are poised for the invasion of the homeland. The conquerors of France are on the defensive.

"Our aims," said de Gaulle in his anniversary speech, "are the vanquishing of the enemy, liberation of territory and national rejuvenation by democracy and liberty." It is a noble program and one that the great resister may be sure the Americans and Britons with him in North Africa will do everything they can to help him carry out.

GAS WAR DETERRENT

Occasional warning issued to the Axis about their initiating gas warfare are backed up by the fact that the United States is better equipped for such hostilities than any other power. In the First World War Germany had that ranking.

Supply of chlorine is the best yardstick to measure the chemical war capacity of any nation. It is used in such concoctions as mustard gas, phosgene, lewisite and other chemical agents. Other chlorine agents are used in protective equipment against gas warfare. Principal raw ingredients of gases are sulphur, chlorine and arsenic. In supplies of all of these the United States is prepared to match any enemy.

Chemical warfare, of which poison gas is only one classification, is already being waged. The United States Army is spending a billion dollars a year on chemicals through approximately 10,000 production contracts. Incendiary bombs are a part of that production. Smoke screens are another. Incendiary materials consist of spontaneously inflammable liquids, magnesium, white phosphorus, solid oils, thermites and mixtures of oxidizing agents which burn easily. The smoke producing program has made great advancement and Allied protective screens are better than they have ever been.

Gases for possible use in this war are about the same as in the other conflict. There is one new gas, nitrogen mustard, with which the Nazis are well supplied. But whether they will use it in the knowledge of Americas greater productive capacity remains to be seen. If the barbaric hordes start gas warfare, they will not be able to claim, piously, that they were not warned.

JAPAN'S MISFIT CREED

National egoism is shattering the foundation of the Japanese empire to an extent that is probably unrealized by many Japs. For years the Jap soldier has been thoroughly indoctrinated with the idea that it is his duty to die fighting. In battle he flares back to the individualist perhaps because he is a fatalist.

The Japanese military creed contains a preachment that the Jap soldier is the best fighter in the world, and that in an exchange of bullets the forces of the Rising Sun will win every time because the Japanese will never quit firing while most other peoples will surrender to save needless loss of life.

But the Japanese military creed was built on the formula that battles are fought with bullets and sharp steel—bullets from huge cannons to small bore rifles. Battles formerly were fought that way. In previous wars started by Japan that was the way armies and navies fought. But this war is different. It is a war of high explosives.

A thousand bullets, fired from a thousand infantrymen, will fail to inflict as many casualties as one bomb hitting a concentration of troops. The bomb doesn't recognize personal valor or fearlessness of death. The man who drops that bomb no doubt holds life dearly and might refuse to take an oath to die fighting even when fighting hopelessly as the Japs were on Attu. But the Japs that happen to be within its arc when it lets go will be just as dead as if the missile had been dropped by a fanatic instead of by a civilized man.

The gun minimized physical differences between men. The bomb has become the answer to the Jap military creed.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

WORKING MOTHERS FACE PROBLEMS

A number of the large war-production areas are establishing child-care centers for the small children of working mothers. But there are almost no such centers for children from six to fifteen.

Even if enough such protective centers for working mothers' children from six to fifteen were available, not many of these children would be in them. During the long summer months thousands of children will be roaming the streets without guidance or protection. It was bad enough for these children when they were in school part of the day. It is much worse during the long summer vacation.

A Double Day's Work

The mother while at work, if she really cares, must be anxious for the physical and moral safety of her neglected children. Coming home weary, she must not only face another day's work about the house, but often also face the reported difficulties her child got into during her absence. These problems mount and multiply as time goes on. Under the most favorable conditions, it is hard to deal with the child who is reported to have done some wrong while the parent was away. It is much more difficult when this parent is absent day after day for weeks and months on end.

There can be no ideal solution, of course, except for the mother to stop work and remain home to look after her child or she could get a competent substitute or place him in a child-protecting center. Neither of these can be so good for the child as the best mother can be. Moreover, the average mother who works may not be able to make sure her child, especially between 10 and 14, would always be in the center when he is supposed to be there.

Offers Aid Bulletin

Nevertheless, in an effort to offer sympathetic help to the working mother for dealing with well with her child as possible, I have prepared a special bulletin on "Suggestions for Working Mothers," to be had for postage by writing me at 235 East 45th street, New York City, enclosing a self-addressed envelope with a three-cent stamp on it.

Solving Parent Problems

Q.—I've been reading to my three-year-old daughter since she was sixteen months of age, but she won't say the rhymes and stories for me, especially when guests are present.

A.—Don't ask her to say them. Just keep filling her up by reading and reading to her and by and by she will respond. Better, still, she may make up rhymes or yarns of her own. By all means, don't have your child show off before your guests. My selected list of books from which to read to the baby and young child may be had without cost to you, by writing me at 235 East 45th street, New York City, enclosing a self-addressed envelope with a three-cent stamp on it.

The World and the Mud Puddles

WANTED, INTELLIGENCE

Perhaps it is futile to hope that the administration will give serious attention to the suggestions for coping with this nation's food problem, made by Herbert Hoover in his recent broadcast speech. Mr. Hoover speaks as an authority, for he first gained national and then international fame for his efficient work as food administrator during and after the last war.

One of the chief drawbacks to Mr. Hoover's program, in the eyes of the bright young men who are mapping our national future for us, is that it is too simplified. Were it to be put into effect and followed through it would release for military or other worthwhile war service thousands of able-bodied young economists, lawyers and others who have, by the simple act of getting on the federal payroll, magically become experts capable of dictating the policies of whole industries about which they had heard little and knew nothing prior to this process of mental alchemy.

Mr. Hoover's suggestions are in line with those that have been made by other eminent men of both political parties—simply the whole process of producing, processing, distributing and consuming the nation's food supply.

What Noted People Say

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON—Senator Henry Cabot Lodge: "If it is true that we are a 'have-not' nation, it is an open question whether we should not at the end of this war acquire some of the things which we might lack."

CHICAGO—Harrison E. Spangler, Republican national committee chairman speaking of today's informal party meeting: "I do not believe that candidates (for the coming presidential election) will be discussed at a meeting as far as the only candidate that I am against right now is Mr. Roosevelt."

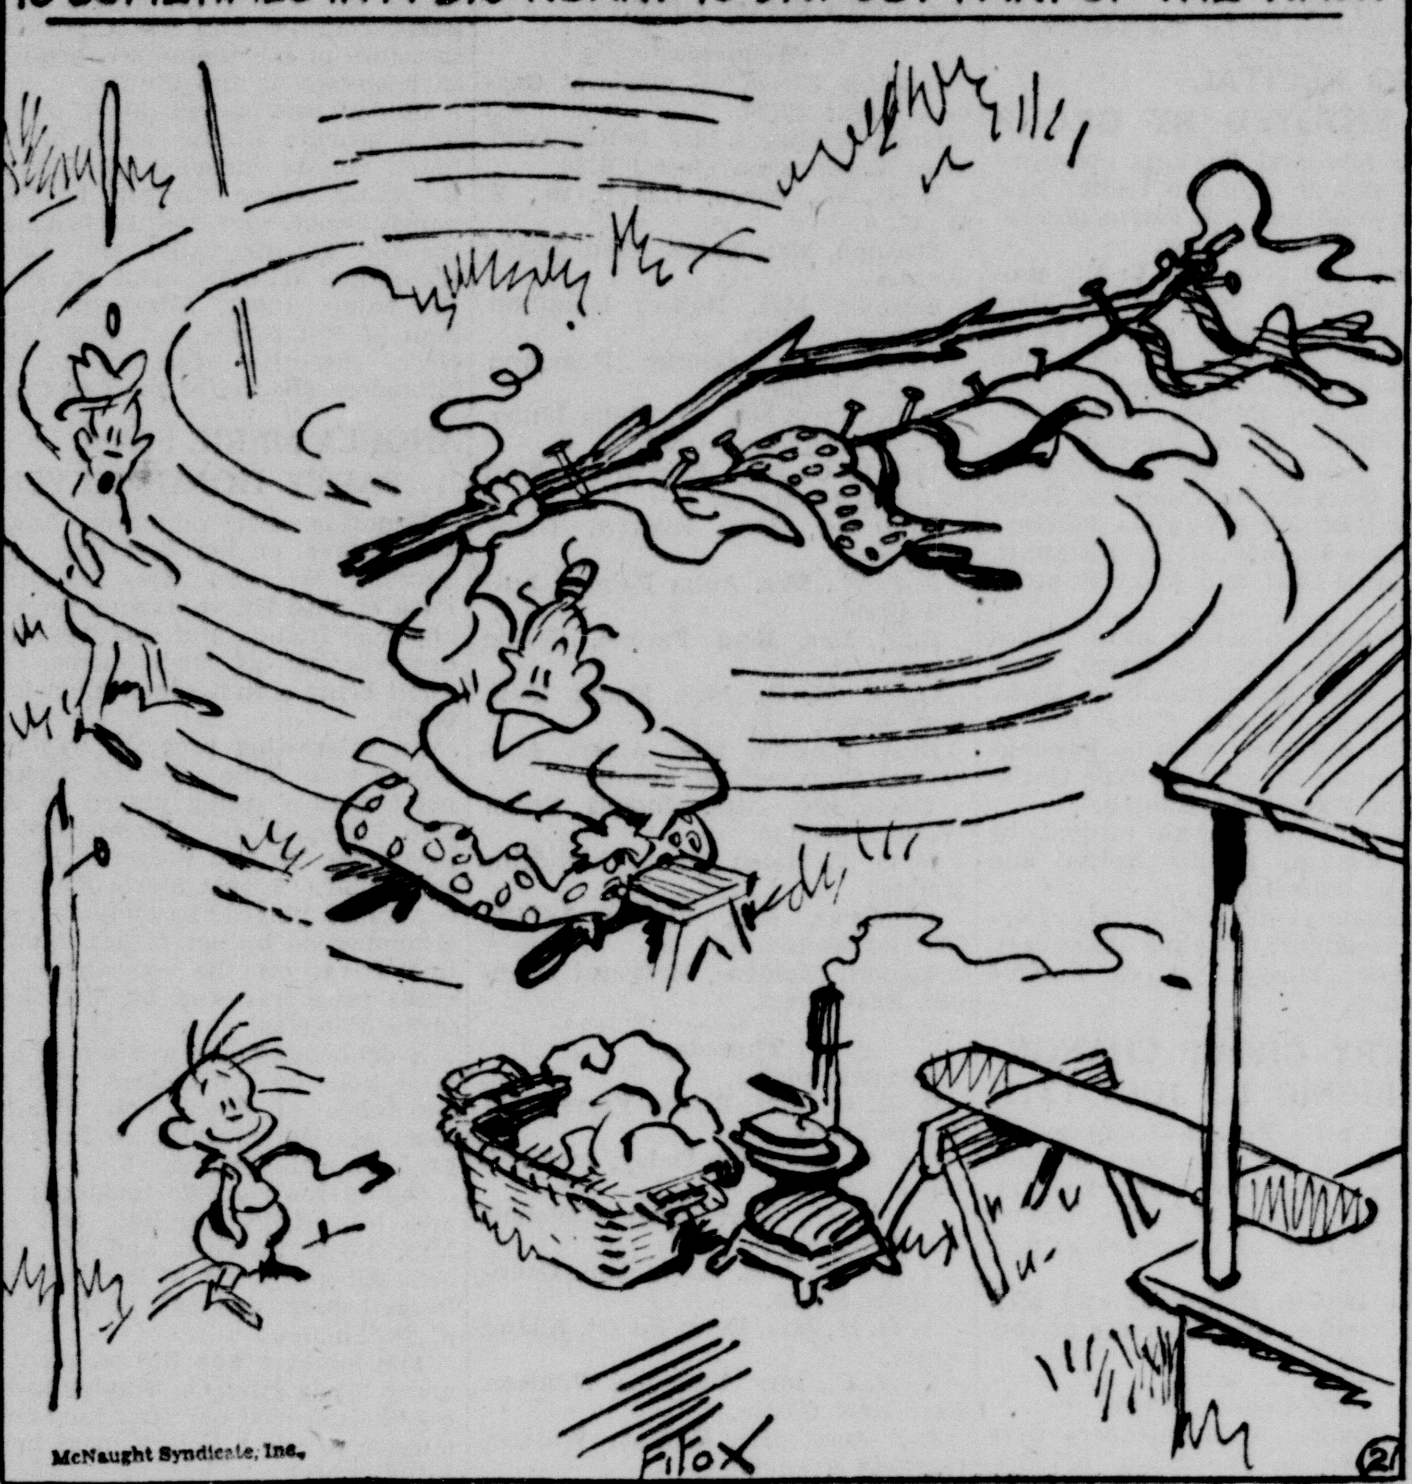

WASHINGTON—William H. Davis, chairman of the War Labor Board, regarding portal-to-portal pay for miners: "It would fly in the face of justice after decision of this board in which we have had to limit the wage increases allowed to the wage earners in most of the great war industries of the country."

HINTS AND DINTS

Sun sets tonight 8:32. Sun rises tomorrow 5:31.

After the war is over the women will have a big say about things outside their homes. And they should have.

It's a good thing not to buy shoes now if they are not needed. Some people always have had too many shoes.

In some places bans are being started against loose talk. We have a surplus of that.

A New York beggar was found to be the owner of two big cars, which seems to explain why he had to beg.

MARK AND THE MORMON

A Mormon once argued polygamy with Mark Twain. The Mormon insisted that polygamy was moral, and he defied Twain to cite any passage of Scripture that forbade the practice.

"Well," said the humorist, "how about that passage that tells us no man can serve two masters?"

We respect people too little. The greatest of heroes was just that ordinary fellow boy a year ago.

China's rice wine has been proved the world's worst drink. American Army flyers couldn't get it down.

The plain truth is that gasoline and food are short because we are still a nation of spoiled wasters.

DO PAPAS COME HOME LATE?

Mother—"Elsie, why are you shouting in that horrible fashion? Why can't you be quiet like Willie?" Elsie—"He's got to be quiet the way we're playing. He's papa coming home late and I'm you."

Very often it's better not to be able to understand some of the things we hear.

If a man enjoys being made a fool of by a woman, there doesn't seem to be any reason for an outsider fretting about it.

Just think of it! Very few countries fail this year. And that's no bull.

One we heard about a woman who attended a bridge school and then told the teacher, "I don't understand." And when her little Johnny came home from school she spanked him because he didn't understand his arithmetic lesson.

Another cause of slight deafness is the knowledge that somebody else will go and answer the phone.

YES—WHAT?
An insurance agent was trying to convince a prospective customer of the merits of life insurance. He kept right at him.

At one stage of the battle, the agent used this argument: "Why," he said, "insurance is the greatest thing in the world. No man should be without it. I even carry a $50,000 policy, payable to my wife."

"It's too much," said the harassed prospect. "What excuse can you give for living?"

People should try to do without the things that our soldiers need. They are helping us by doing all they can in every way.

Among important factors in a democratic system of government is the prejudice vote, which is pretty sure to go to the polls.

"There's nothing new under the sun." That's true, but we all have a feeling that before every new day is done there'll be something new under the ceiling.

A local man, who was married two months ago, was talking to a friend. "My wife went to a cooking school before we got married, but she must have skipped a lot of classes," he said.

GOOD FOR HER!
He had been married about a year, and had taken to spending his evenings down town with the boys. One night his conscience worried him. So he called his young wife up.

"Hello, kid," he began. "Say, slip on some old clothes and run down and meet me on the quiet. We'll have a good dinner and then we'll get a machine and go out and smear a little red paint around. How about it?"

"I'll be delighted to join you, Jack," was the reply. "But why not come up to the house and get me? There's nobody home."

As the husband's name was Tom, he spends his evenings at home now. And his wife wears a queer smile, when he isn't looking at her.

A thrilling sentence: "Paid in full!"

When a man runs after a girl it is romance. When the girl pursues the man it is potential kidnapping.

With so many hurried marriages taking place as a result of the war, it is probable a few mistakes will be made. Always there is a risk.

Byrnes And Baruch Make Effective Team
Baruch Is Popular And Also Diplomatic
Roosevelt And Wallace On Next Ticket

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Columnist

WASHINGTON, June 21.—As unsalaried but chief adviser to Director James F. Byrnes of the recently created Office of War Mobilization, the 72-year-old Bernard M. Baruch, whose organizing ability was an important factor in winning the last world conflict, had not been on his new job for many hours before supplying Jimmy with a bit of advice that all hands agree couldn't have been improved on.

What Baruch recommended was an immediate cessation of the "infernal bickering" among bureaucratic heads and their subordinates to the accompaniment of grave interference with our effort and almost hopeless public confusion.

Just why it was necessary to call in Baruch to furnish this bit of information is not so apparent, however.

Jimmy Byrnes undoubtedly knew it already. Baruch may furnish him with suggestions for disciplining his turbulent subordinates, but it is altogether unlikely that the former is aware of the wrangling's prevalence.

There not only is squabbling between bureaucrats but also between representatives and senators.

It is not improbable, indeed, that Mobilization Director Byrnes has disputes to settle faster than he can handle them and needs a partner of Baruch's caliber to take care of the overflow. Baruch is popular, too. Backed by Boss Byrnes, and overheard, by Super-Boss Roosevelt, he can be firm, but he likewise is diplomatic and persuasive.

Incidentally, Director Byrnes' plan is to take a hand in the shaping of war taxation policies, and Baruch is a tax expert.

Jimmy wants to consolidate his executive negotiations with a couple of congressional committees—one in the senate, one in the house of representatives. It will require an executive team to deal with both of them. This span of committees will have to be created. Jimmy and Baruch will divide the task between them.

Baruch already is on record to the effect that there must not be too many appeals to the White House from the Mobilization Office's rulings.

This shows Baruch's foresightedness.

Jimmy cannot very well say that HE must not be appealed from. Baruch, though, unsalaried and (Continued On Page Six)

LILACS

I don't know much about it. As a youngster I was told Beyond the peary gateway all the streets are paved with gold. Now, I fancy, they were trying to convince a growing boy That Heaven is filled with beauty and a place we'll all enjoy. But what I hope to find there is a more exquisite thing; I wonder up in Heaven have they lilacs in the spring?

This life is full of trouble and the skies are often gray There's much of care to fret us that we'll have to put away.

There is ugliness about us; there are tasks we dread to do. But there still is much that's lovely for the eyes of men to view.

And I'd hate to think of leaving if to this I didn't cling: The faith that up in Heaven there'd be lilacs in the spring.

Of all the bits of splendor which the springtime has displayed, The mother thought the lilacs were the loveliest God had made.

And I know she'd not be happy or content with streets of gold Or chrysoprase or onyx or a crown of metals cold.

And she wouldn't call it Heaven though she heard the angels sing. If it lacked the simple beauty of the lilacs in the spring.

One Man's Opinion

By WALTER KIERNAN
(International News Service Staff Writer)

Well we have another free-style, extra-judicial decision to keep the pot boiling in the case of People vs. John L. Lewis.

Lewis is the man nobody loves except half a million miners who grub under the ground for wages you wouldn't offer a housemaid.

They loved him in 1936 when he was for Lewis. They loved him in 1940 when he was for Willie. And they love him in 1943 when he isn't for anybody.

But that's beside the point which is that the War Labor Board, grown suddenly tough and ferocious, gave Old John the full treatment.

They just hauled off in a brusque ruling and said "look punk—you're going to sign a contract that says you can't strike for the duration of the war—See!"

Just by chance—oh by the merest teeniest coincidence—they said it at the very moment everybody was wondering what the president would do with the anti-strike bill.

The bill is aimed at Old John see? And if Old John surrendered what do you suppose would happen to the bill?

Thought for the day: Let's see now—two and two make four.

In Defense Of Elmer

WASHINGTON, June 21. WHETHER OR not the Senate hears the wound which the House inflicted upon the OWI by abolishing its domestic unit, it should be made clear that that action was not because of Mr. Elmer Davis' recent Newspaper Guild speech. It would have come without that.

THE UNFORTUNATE pomposity of Mr. Davis, the character of the OWI product and the sound reasons for regarding its domestic activities as partisan, stupid and unnecessary to the war effort had combined for a long time to create the ill will which found expression in the devastating House vote. The critical comments of Mr. Davis concerning the way in which Washington correspondents do their work and on what he considers the general deterioration of the newspaper business since he left it, may have lent force to the blow, but it would have come anyhow. Nor was there much point in Republican members of Congress rushing to the defense of the press after Mr. Davis' speech.

FOR ONE thing, Washington correspondents have been lectured by ever more pompous and pretentious persons than Mr. Davis. And, they have been publicly battered many times by politicians of greater importance than those who arose last week to tell them what fine fellows they are and what a low creature Mr. Davis is. With the correspondents this is all in the day's work. They expect to be unpopular with jobholders whose ineptitudes they have pointed out. And they expect to be despised by those on the other side who think they see an opportunity of ingratiating themselves with the "newspaper boys" and at (Continued On Page Six)

Looking At Life

By ERICH BRANDEIS

One of the artists in our office—close to the appointed three score and ten—died last night.

I shall not give his name because he was a shy sort of a fellow and never liked publicity. I'll just call him Al.

Well, Al was taken sick about four days ago, while he was in the midst of doing the illustrations for a story.

This morning his widow called up the editor under whose direction he had worked and said: "Just before he died Al asked me to phone you and apologize for leaving you with his work half-finished."

"He said he wouldn't do it if he could help it, but there isn't much one can do about dying."

With a sob in her voice she hung up and the editor—a pretty hard-boiled sort of a fellow—had a hard time holding back the tears.

LEADER OF NYA DEFIES CRITICS TO POLL PLANTS

Ask Plant Chiefs About Program's Value, Williams Urges Opponents

WASHINGTON, June 21—National Youth Administrator Aubrey Williams on Saturday challenged critics to poll war plant executives on the value of the NYA training program, promising to ask congress personally to abolish the agency if they oppose it.

He said outstanding educators and industrialists are opposed to the house vote to abolish the NYA. The administration is expected to make a fight in the senate for restoration of funds for NYA.

Mr. Williams said one of the most effective answers to opponents of the agency is "what industrialists themselves say about it."

NYA Training Cited
The Houston Shipbuilding Corp., of Houston, Tex., Mr. Williams said, wrote that their "employee record shows that approximately 75 per cent of the 4000 welders working in the yard have been given preliminary training by the NYA."

"The people we've hired from NYA training rolls," the letter continued, "on the average make far better employees than the welders we've hired from any other source."

The Sun Shipyard Co., of Philadelphia, has gone on record as saying that "it would be a grave mistake" if the war production training program were stopped," Mr. Williams said.

"Can Use More"
The Kaiser shipyard of San Francisco, declared that many of its sheet metal workers, coppersmiths,

Mr. Williams said that 425,000 young people between the ages of 16 and 25 have been trained in the last year through actual production-in-workshop units, producing a wide variety of articles, ranging from gun parts for the armed forces to ladders for the Merchant Marine.

He said a study recently completed of 40,000 typical students participating in the current NYA college work program shows that 80 per cent were enrolled in fields critical to the war effort.

SOUR MILK

A famous doctor and bacteriologist said that sour milk would help people to live longer. Many people like it. It is a good food. If milk is kept clean and pasteurized, the sour milk is safe and wholesome.

Some people call it Bonny Klabber when it is thick. They eat it with sugar or molasses on it. Pasteurization destroys the harmful bacteria.

The beneficial bacteria are not killed. They multiply and form substances which cause the milk to sour and get thick.

If you like it, eat all you want. Demand for garden tools is larger this year than ever. They promise to be scarce by mid-summer.

Free Speech, Press Will Aid Post-War Employment Problem

American Industry Can 'Create' Jobs For All If Liberty Is Kept Alive

(International News Service)
CINCINNATI, June 21.—American industry cannot guarantee a job for everyone as soon as the war ends, but by preserving free speech and a free press it can "create" jobs for all.

That statement was made Saturday by Frederick C. Crawford, president of the National Association of Manufacturers, speaking before the National Editorial association.

Asserting that when the war ends it will leave 55,000,000 men and women in the labor market, Crawford said:

"It is only the politicians and the planners who can guarantee jobs, and these are of two kinds: raking leaves or piling up armaments."

"The thing that industry can assert is confidence in its own ability within humanly reasonable time, to create new jobs for the American people in the future as it has done in the past."

The Cleveland manufacturer stressed the need for free expression, however, saying:

"American industry is confident that if we retain freedom of speech in public assembly, in the printed word and over the air, we can retain the free economic system on which America in the course of 150 years has grown to world leadership."

Many Garments Are Reported By South Side Unit

Members of the South Side Unit of the American Red Cross Society meeting at the home of Mrs. Klammar Katties, of 144 East Long avenue, have completed the following garments during this month.

Mary Amabile, 3 sweaters; Mrs. Angelina Frasso, 4 sweaters; Mrs. Frances Cagnetti, 5 shirts; Mrs. Amelia Petrilli, 5 shirts; Mrs. Mary Ross, 10 shirts; Mrs. Clothilda Ross, 5 shirts; Mrs. Divina Janetti, 1 sweater; Mrs. Adeline Volpe, 3 shirts; Mrs. Anna Farraro, 3 sweaters; Mrs. Margherita Spinello, 2 mufflers; Mrs. Anna Elko, 4 shirts; Mrs. Mary Matonak, 2 shirts; Mrs. Anna Kiroi, 5 shirts; Mrs. Anna Gallonio, 5 shirts; Mrs. George Duda, 5 shirts; Mrs. Caroline Aiello, 1 sweater; Mrs. Anthony Costa, 2 shirts.

Any person desiring to help in this worthy cause, or make surgical dressings at the Wallace Block which is under the direction of Mrs. Norman A. Martin, are invited to do so.

The children of parents that have made these garments are also doing their bit in the war effort. St. Michael's school children have collected an average of 727 cans per pupil, with a total of 66,157 and have won permanent possession of the tin can championship flag.

Post-War Miracle Devices Will Be Perfected Slowly

Manufacturers Warn Public Not To Expect Glamorous Inventions Overnight

By WALTER KIERNAN
(International News Service Staff Writer)
NEW YORK, June 21—While advocating newer and better products for America's consumers in the post-war world, manufacturers are showing an increasing tendency toward warning the public against expecting any immediate miracles.

Recently the president of the Parkard Motor company issued such a warning. On Saturday it was T. J. Newcomb, sales manager of the electrical appliance division of Westinghouse.

Both used almost identical language. Newcomb asserted:

"When V day comes, we at Westinghouse feel it will be our duty to get into production fast—not only to serve a pent-up demand, but equally important, to maintain high employment."

"To do this means using tools, machines, materials, and 'know-how' that is in existence from pre-war days."

He continued:

"Everybody and his brother except the manufacturers who must actually produce appliances are telling the public all about the luscious, glamorous devices they can expect, come post-war."

"There is no doubt that out of this war will be born many new conceptions of electrical appliances. Naturally, right now, we are not manufacturing appliances, but to me it is quite probable that it will be long before these new conceptions can be designed, tooled and tested to a degree that they should be offered to the public."

"No responsible manufacturer asks the consumer to be his 'guinea pig.'"

Rollback Of U. S. Payroll Is Urged

WASHINGTON, June 21—Referring to a recent announcement of a Congressional committee that in seven war agencies 861 employees received pay increases of from $1,200 to $6,000 a year, Representative Gavin (Rep.) of Pennsylvania, declared in the house that a rollback of government payrolls is more important than a rollback of food prices.

The Oil City representative said: "The government orders wage and salary stabilization in private employment, yet within the government itself we have all these raises with overtime pay on top.

"Spend and elect seems still to be the order of the day."

"We are talking today about rollback of food prices. We had better begin talking about rollback of governmental pay rolls before we break the back of the American taxpayers."

LIFT AUTO BAN AAA DEMANDS

WASHINGTON, June 21—Thomas P. Henry, president of the American Automobile Association, told Price Administrator Prentiss Brown that the ban on pleasure driving should be ended permanently because "it has no place in the rationing machinery of this country" and attempts to enforce it result in "snooping."

In a letter to Brown, Henry noted "considerable agitation" for extension of the ban from the Eastern storage area to other sections.

He estimated the order has saved 1.5 per cent of petroleum and petroleum products transported daily into the shortage area.

Henry added:

"To talk of pleasure driving on one and one-half gallons of gasoline a week (Eastern allotment to 'A' Card holders) is simply unrealistic."

"When we plowed up crops, how did we know this was coming?"—New Dealer. If you had no vision, you had no right to accept responsibility.

COOKING FRESH VEGETABLES

Green and yellow vegetables fresh from the garden are perfect side partners for meat and potatoes. The smart homemaker fixes these vegetables so they keep that fresh garden look and taste, along with the vitamins and minerals we need to help keep us healthy.

The secret to success in serving vegetables so the family will enjoy them is to select fresh, tender, young vegetables, cook and season them properly, and serve them attractively.

Use vegetables as soon as you can after they come from the garden and cook just what you need for one meal. If there are leftovers, use them in a salad, or in soup, or a casserole dish.

To make the most of what Mother Nature put into vegetables here are a few simple rules:

1. Use little water slightly salted. Use only enough water to prevent vegetables sticking to the pan. Have water boiling when you put vegetables in kettle. Greens need only the water clinging to the leaves.

2. Cook a short time, only until vegetables are tender. Never add soda to the cooking water—soda destroys vitamins.

3. Leaving off the lid helps to keep the green color of vegetables. Root vegetables may be cooked in a covered kettle.

4. Slice or dice root vegetables to cut cooking time.

5. Serve vegetables in their own juice, or if too much, use it in soup, sauce, gravy, or vegetable cocktail. That's being thrifty with the vitamins.

Season vegetables to taste. The easiest way to season a plain cooked hot vegetable is to add salt and pepper to taste and a little meat drippings or melted fat or butter, just before ready to serve.

To give more lift now and then, drop in a little chopped onion, green onion tops, parsley, or chives. A little milk may be added at the last minute to cooked carrots, turnips or onions.

Use vegetables that are available and vary the ways of serving them so each member of the family will leave a clean plate.

Man's silliest occupation is to argue hotly about something that must remain a matter of opinion because there is no proof.

Keystone - Lawrence Transfer
Co. Employees Dine At
'Family Dinner' At Castleton

Employees of the Keystone-Lawrence Transfer Co. met with the management on Saturday night, June 19, at a "family dinner" in the Castleton hotel, marking the opening of a "merit system" of rating. About 30 were present, including a few special guests.

The dinner was delightfully informal. Following the service of a turkey dinner, Mrs. Harry L. Gormley took over the duties of toastmaster. Opening a short speaking program she thanked the employees for the co-operation they had shown, and reminded them that their being on the job so consistently has resulted in the movement of essential war commodities without delay. "Manufactured products are worth nothing until they are delivered," said Mrs. Gormley in thanking employees for their loyalty.

Mrs. Gormley introduced Roger E. Jewett, executive vice president of the Greater New Castle Association. Mr. Jewett spoke upon "The Importance of the Trucking Industry to the Community." Mr. Jewett pointed out that New Castle was strategically located at the hub of a network of fine highways and that in the past 10 years the city had grown to a trucking center of importance. Bart Richards spoke upon "Trucking and the War."

Mrs. Gormley then announced the merit plan. The plan is one that is being used by numerous trucking companies throughout the nation, and an emblem authorized by the War Production Board is presented to each employee eligible.

To secure the emblem an employee must go a month without being late or being absent without a sufficient reason, and must do his job as directed. An employee winning the pin for six months gets permanent possession. Each employee winning it for 12 months will be given a cash award by Mrs. Gormley, unless there be some prohibition in the labor laws in which case other means of reward will be devised.

During the dinner piano music was provided by Miss Gene McIlvaine.

'Pay-As-You-Go' Tax Facts Given

Questions and answers below explain the provisions of the current tax payment act of 1943, and are prepared by the treasury department in Washington.

Q. Is the "withholding tax" a new tax or an additional tax?

A. Neither. It is a new "pay-as-you-go" method of collecting the Federal income and victory tax. The amount withheld goes toward paying your regular income tax, including the victory tax.

Q. Why is it called a withholding tax?

A. Because it is deducted and withheld by the employer from the wages paid to his employees.

Q. Is this the "pay-as-you-go" tax we've been hearing so much about?

A. Yes.

Q. Does this include my victory tax payment, or is that extra?

A. The amount withheld includes the victory tax.

Q. Does it include employment taxes, formerly called social security taxes?

A. The amount withheld does not include social security taxes.

Q. When does it start?

A. The new "Withholding Tax" takes effect on July 1, 1943, and is applicable to all wages paid on or after that date except for wages paid for payroll periods commencing before that date.

Q. Does the withholding mean that 20 per cent of my pay check will be taken out each payday?

A. No. Exemptions bring the amount considerably lower, even for the single person with no dependents. For instance, in the case of a married man with two dependents drawing $50 per week, the weekly percentage of withholding amounts to less than 6 per cent. In other words this man pays approximately $2.80 per week.

Q. Last March I paid one-quarter of the income tax levied against 1942 income, $15.80. What happens to that?

A. The first quarter of the income tax levied for 1942 and paid in March 1943 will be treated as part payment of income tax for 1943.

Q. How about the June 15th installment?

A. The June 15th installment will also be treated as part payment of the 1943 tax.

Q. How can I maintain my regular purchases of War Bonds through the payroll savings plan and at the same time pay out the additional withholding tax?

A. It should be as easy under the withholding tax system as at present, since this is not an additional tax but merely an installment or pay-as-you-go method of paying your regular annual income tax.

untitled, can speak like an ordinary citizen.

He is as independent as a hog-on-ice, anyway.

He would not have done for Jimmy's new job; he is too old. Nevertheless, he is not old enough to have lost his significance.

Jimmy denies that he is an aspirant for the vice presidential nomination in 1944. It is a good guess on his part, unquestionably. I do not say that he could be elected on a ticket with Franklin D. Roosevelt, but it would not be possible for him to be nominated initially. He will make too many enemies.

Jimmy Byrnes may be eligible in 1948—if HE is not too old then, too. He will be, though.

The betting is 10-to-1, at least, next time—Roosevelt and Wallace, on the Democratic ticket.

There can be some G. O. P. gambling. As between the two parties (assessing them as of today) I know who I am staking on.

Jimmy Byrnes, however, has declared himself.

Anyway, he is due to offend so many groups shortly that electing him to any old job will be an impossibility in the reasonably near future. After which, he will be too anxious for consideration.

Yet he will be awfully important in the meantime.

Bernard is of no consequence, temporarily. Yet he will have a lot to do with temporary economics.

LITTLE BABY IS BITTEN BY RAT

Darrell, the eight weeks old son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Martin of 918 Marshall avenue, was treated at the James Memorial hospital at 1:15 o'clock Sunday morning after the infant had been bitten by a rat around midnight.

The rat is believed to have been scared out of the basement by a man who had been working there earlier in the evening, and to have made its way to the baby's bed room. Discovery of the rat under a dresser by the parents, about midnight, after the baby's injuries had been discovered, confirmed the fact that the injuries had been caused by the rodent.

THE GREAT GAME OF POLITICS

the same time score against an opponent.

EACH CANCELS the other out. Both are well understood by every newspaperman and neither is of importance. Of course, Mr. Davis is not a low creature, nor a Goebbels nor a Gayda. On the contrary, while he is filled with a too deep consciousness of his own rectitude, he is devoid of any sinister purpose. It is possible to say that his personal manners could be improved, that his capacity as a public administrator is slight, that his sense of humor is feeble, that his judgment of men is poor and that he thinks more highly of himself than the facts justify. But efforts to depict him as an evil man are just ridiculous. He may be a bore, but he isn't bad.

CONSIDERING his type, Mr. Davis' attitude towards newspapermen is entirely natural. To one of his temperament it is natural to feel that the newspaper business suffered a great loss when he left it, and he is rather addicted to referring to the time when "I was a reporter myself," inferring that reporting was on a much higher level in those days. This is a delusion, but, while it does not greatly endear him to active reporters, it does no harm. He was made head of the OWI not because of his newspaper record but because as a radio commentator he had done a good job and made a national reputation.

BUT, THERE was another reason. Mr. Davis was also a New Dealer of the more advanced kind, a member of the radical American Labor party, an ardent third term and just as ardent for the fourth term. Without those qualifications he might have been much more gifted than he is and he would not have been given the chief propagandist job in this Administration. When first he came to Washington, Mr. Davis had a very good press. Correspondents and columnists alike were cordial up to the time of certain developments. One of these was that Mr. Davis' OWI was using the taxpayers' money to distribute literature which, in effect, was New Deal campaign material.

ANOTHER WAS that Mr. Davis' very expensive organization was full of friction and feuds and that Mr. Davis, himself, did not know a great deal about what was going on. When these things were pointed out in the press Mr. Davis angrily proclaimed that all he was doing was giving the American people "full and accurate information."

There was considerable documentary evidence to contradict this and his contention was not strengthened by his public reference to fourth-term talk as "hot air." In face of the facts, that was anything but "full and accurate." It was, in fact, extremely silly. Mr. Davis' reaction to press comment on these things was resentful and his speech denigrating correspondents clearly was due to hurt feelings. But no one should be surprised at this. Criticism of the press is a major New Deal policy, and Mr. Davis' reaction in a small way is exactly Mr. Roosevelt's in a big way. No doubt Mr. Davis has been commended for his "attack" by the White House "inner circle," and probably it will be followed by others—which is all right.

LIKE HIS Chief, he considers it his duty to point out the errors of the press and correct the correspondents who show this regrettable disposition to carp and cavil at great men. The correspondents do not mind. Some of them are amused over the efforts of a bungling bureaucrat to tell them how not to report his bungling. Others just feel contempt. But few really care. They know that long after Mr. Roosevelt, Mr. Davis and the rest of those who now strut upon the Washington stage have passed away, Washington correspondents still will be reporting to the country the facts about Presidents and public officials. They will be assailed by those whom they criticize and praised by the politicians who happen to be on the other side. And neither will make any difference whatsoever. If the time ever comes when any administration and its opposition are equally pleased with the press, then, indeed, newspapers and newspapermen will have degraded their profession and done the American people an injury. The ideal situation, which too seldom occurs, is the one where both political sides are equally resentful. Always, that is the most convincing evidence that newspapermen are measuring up to the highest standards and that the national interest is being really served by a free and independent press.

WHISTLES, BELLS TO SOUND CURFEW

Davies Suggests Bells; And Mayor And He To Arrange For Alarm

During council meeting, held today in city hall, council voted to have fire-bells toll and fire-whistles blow at 11 p. m. each night to warn 17-year-olds and under that they are prohibited from being in public places or streets.

This action was taken after Safety Director D. O. Davies inquired of Mayor Charles B. Mayne, head of the bureau of police, if he had yet made any arrangements for a whistle at 11 p. m. Mayor Mayne said he believed an alarm which council decided upon the bells and whistle to sound.

The eight o'clock whistle will be discontinued. It developed in council that it has sounded for years to notify children of an old curfew law.

Girl Dies, Soldier Injured As Horse Sideswipes Auto

(International News Service)
MILLVILLE, N. J., June 21.—A soldier stationed at the Army air base in Millville was in critical condition today, after he and a 19-year-old Beaver college girl were brushed from the running board of a moving automobile by a saddle horse.

The girl, Alice Wolf, died as a result of her injuries. She was the daughter of Clarence S. Wolf, president of the Millville Board of Education and of the New Jersey Silica Sand Co. Corp. William Thompson, 24, sustained a fractured skull.

Miss Wolf and Corporal Thompson were walking home from a picnic when Sgt. James Duke of Harrisburg, Pa., offered them a ride on the running board of his car. The fatal accident occurred when Duke attempted to pass three horsemen coming in the opposite direction. One of the riders could not swerve his horse in time and the couple was knocked from the running board.

ONE-FIFTH OF ALL WAR WORKERS IN STATE ARE WOMEN

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, June 21.—More than 20 per cent of all war workers in Pennsylvania are women and employment officials expect the number to increase as production rises. The U. S. Employment Service for Pennsylvania reported today.

A survey of 1170 major industrial plants disclosed approximately 288,437 women employed in vital production. Director H. Raymond Mason said.

"As our armed forces grow," he stated, "it is estimated that by next year 30 per cent of all war production workers and 45 per cent of all non-essential workers will be women."

Female employment increased more than 23 per cent during the first five months of this year, Mason said.

complete defeat of the powers of aggression." With official Washington inclined to believe that the German summer offensive, if it is going to be launched, may come this week, Hull's statement was seen not only as a tribute, but a message of encouragement to the Russian people. The text of his statement said:

"Tomorrow, June 22, marks the second anniversary of the Nazi attack upon the Soviet Union. For a period of two years the armed forces of the Soviet Union have been gallantly and successfully defending their country against the aggressor."

"In two great summer offensives, the Nazis have failed to attain their avowed aim of annihilating the red army. As the third summer opens, the Nazi legions in eastern Europe find confronting them millions of Russian soldiers well equipped and of high morale prepared not only to meet any onslaught, but also to hurl back the invaders."

"It is appropriate that we again today give expression to our admiration of the courage and spirit of self-sacrifice displayed by the whole people of the Soviet Union in successfully defending themselves and their country, and in making such significant contributions to the eventual complete defeat of the powers of aggression."

U. S. ROYAL

Says MacArthur Misunderstood

Correspondent Gives Impressions After Meeting In Australia

INTENSE NERVOUS ENERGY IS SHOWN

By ART COHN
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)
SOMEWHERE IN AUSTRALIA, June 21.—Dear Boss: The most misunderstood man in the U. S. army is Douglas MacArthur.

This is not unnatural. We have a habit of garbling the lives of our heroes. To be famous is to be misunderstood. For fame, like a river, is narrow at its source and broadest afar off.

Even the camera distorts MacArthur. It catches only his austere dignity. In life his Leonine face is as strong in character but its famed grimace is softened by expressive lines about the eyes and mouth that betray a strain of gentleness.

This is the first contradiction that impresses a stranger meeting the general for the first time. The second is his voice. From legendary tales that have grown up around the man one anticipates a 6-foot Napoleon dramatically pacing back and forth across a mirrored office at least a hundred feet long, all the while fiercely smoking a pipe and bellowing Grecian quotations between sulphurous billows of smoke.

Actually, MacArthur speaks in a soft, modulated voice, at times so hushed that across his desk it is hardly audible above the clatter of streetcars rumbling eight floors below his windows. As for his fabled dashes, during the 58 minutes I was in his office one afternoon recently he did not leave his chair once, except to shake hands goodbye.

Sways In Chair

swaying in his swivel chair as if keeping tempo with his flow of words. He rarely gropes for a phrase, only for a match, for while his pipe is constantly clenched in the left corner of his mouth it would be gross libel to report he smokes it. It would be closer to the truth to say he lights it. The pesky thing goes out every few seconds.

MacArthur is a man of magnetic personality and Rooseveltian charm who makes a mopey at ease, meanwhile disarming him with a deft touch. "I am always astonished at meeting correspondents. From their writings they seem so wise and when I see them they look so young."

He smiles easily but the granite returns to his jaw when he speaks of the enemy. MacArthur holds a deep respect for the Jap, one surpassed only by his sublime faith in the American soldier.

Words Of Napoleon
Only once during his soliloquy on tactics, philosophy and the imperiousness of war did the general quote a military forerunner and they were words of Napoleon that he had read more than 40 years ago, "never surrender as long as you can inflict injury on the enemy."

Here is a man who knows military strategy is ageless, one who wrote in his last annual report as chief of staff in 1935, "were the accounts of all battles, save only those of Genghis Khan, effaced from the pages of history and were the facts of his campaigns preserved in descriptive detail, the soldier would still possess a mine of untold wealth...the successes of that amazing leader, beside which the triumphs of most other commanders in history pale into insignificance, are proof sufficient of his unerring instinct for the fundamental qualifications of an army."

It warmed the cockles of a reformed sports writer's heart to watch the general, one of the world's most eloquent phrase-makers, throw a change of pace and illustrate technical points with comparisons to sport.

"Marines are like horses," he said on one occasion. "Many can win but only the champions can come in from behind."

At another point, evaluating the power of any nation puissant on land and sea and weak in the air—or invincible on land and air but wanting in a navy—as "doomed to inevitable defeat as a powerful heavyweight fighter with two powerful legs and one arm would be, even by an ordinary welterweight."

Again, discussing the Japs' fan-like method of infiltrating enemy ranks, MacArthur compared him to "Willie Keeler, who 'hit 'em where they ain't'."

For a man indicted by his calumnies as an aloof rhetorician, MacArthur is as democratic a personality as I have met.

The general's estimate of the war? Sorry, but they may not be published at this time. I am permitted only to express my own views, gleaned from listening to thousands of men, from generals to privates.

The Jap does some things magnificently and everything well. Only those guilty of confusing mental deficiency with physical efficiency underestimate his marvelous fighting ability. But one of those, fortunately, is not General MacArthur. Yours, A. C.

NEWS AND VIEWS AT CAPITAL

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, June 21—Gov. Edward Martin's speeches have assumed a definite pattern during the last few months. In the opening weeks of his administration, the governor's speeches were chock-full of post-war planning proposals, but during the last two months he has soft-pedaled reconstruction and placed emphasis on the need for a decentralization of government and elimination of huge federal expenditures. No reason has even been given for the switch, but Republicans admit that it would be poor ing enormous sums of the people's money. The first plan is sound, he believes, but the second would put "millions of Americans at the mercy of the government."

The present generation of school children probably will turn out to be better mathematicians than their parents despite the tendency of most pupils to expose themselves as briefly as possible to mathematics. The Department of Public Instruction has reported that membership in the more than 1500 school victory corps has resulted in a "stepping up" of efficiency in mathematics and science to train students for special wartime jobs. "All classes in Mathematics are attempting to re-establish and maintain accuracy and skill in the fundamental operations of whole numbers, fractions and decimals," the department stated. "Students who are not proficient in the upper levels of typical secondary school mathematics, or who have not taken courses in mathematics since the ninth year, are being asked to transfer to special courses in mathematics." The instruction program embraces algebra, geometry and trigonometry, in addition to elementary mathematics.

The State Bureau of Foods and Chemistry has issued a warning against using hams, shoulders and so-called "picnics" that have been kept without proper summertime refrigeration. Anton Roeger, Jr., director, has pointed out that cases of food poisoning have been reported from consumption of improperly kept ham. He explained that hams of the uncooked variety and those subjected to tenderizing treatment as well as improperly cured meats "are particularly susceptible to bacterial growth and decomposition in the summertime when temperature fluctuations are constant."

INVENTORY OF BOOKS UNDERWAY AT LIBRARY

Inventory of books at the public library is under way. Miss Alice Sterling, librarian, announced today, and borrowers who may have overdue books at home are urged to return them to the library.

Daily fines on books overdue do not accumulate over 50 cents, even on those which have been out so long as to be considered lost. This means that a borrower who has had a surprise by coming upon a book long overdue at the library may return it to the place where it belongs, the public library, for a very moderate charge for forgetfulness.

Charges Waste In Army-Navy

Senator Truman Urges Inquiry Into "Extravagance" In Services Of U. S.

By WILLIAM S. NEAL
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, June 21.—Sen. Harry S. Truman (D) Mo., chairman of the Senate war investigating committee today charged that extravagance and waste is rampant in the army and navy.

Truman promised an investigation through the appropriations committee of necessity for the $72,000,000 war department appropriation submitted to the House with a committee statement that the war cost is "frightful."

Much Waste

"The army is extremely extravagant in construction, procurement and in every other thing," said Truman.

"In fact, if there is any place along the line that does not involve waste and extravagance I haven't run into it."

In declaring that army and navy expenditures must be scrutinized Truman joined Sen. Walter F. George (D) Ga., who warned of the danger of breaking down the home front and thus injuring the war effort by uncontrolled multi-billion expenditures.

"There is a lot of talk about a few billions appropriated for civilian agencies when the army is getting $72,000,000 and the navy has got $28,000,000," said Truman.

Not All Needed

"And the army fund includes $20,000,000,000 of reappropriations. I fought the appropriations last year because I didn't think all the money should be appropriated until we found out what they would do with it."

Truman, whose committee has just completed an inquiry into the southwest ordnance plant in Kansas where members charged that extravagance exists, said that the situation there is just as bad as others investigated over a year ago.

He said the situation is as bad as that the committee exposed at Camp Blanding, Fla., and which it believed would exist in reform in control of expenditures in the armed services.

The army, he charged, both wastes and hoards manpower and thus unnecessarily increases costs.

END STRIKE AT FORD FACTORY

(International News Service)

DETROIT, June 21.—A strike which had cut bomber production at the Willow Run plant by 50 per cent ended early today when 200 foremen—all members of the Foremen's Association of America—agreed to resume work and discuss grievances at a later time.

The walkout halted after a conference between Edwin White, of the Detroit War Labor Board and Robert Keys, national president of the FAA. The foremen had ceased operations after charging that 28 members of their organization had been discharged for posting a union advertisement on a company bulletin board.

Condemn Latest Strike Of Miners

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, June 21.—Twenty thousand members of the American Slav Congress today were on record condemning the latest strike in the soft coal fields because it "aids Hitler set one group against another."

In a resolution adopted at a meeting here yesterday, the Slav Congress warned the nation's half-million United Mine Workers, a great percentage of whom are themselves of Slavic descent, that "if your sons fail to come back at the end of hostilities, you will have this thing on your own conscience."

The resolution expressed sympathy with the efforts of the miners to secure "deserved" wage increases, but added that a strike at this time "cannot be tolerated."

Homecoming At Wesleyan Church

Homecoming services at Wesleyan Methodist church, Rev. E. D. Lupton, pastor, were well attended Sunday. Rev. J. R. Swauger of Sandy Lake, Pa., was the speaker at the services and his daughter, Miss Virginia Swauger, gave an object lesson for the Sunday school.

During the Sunday school hour, a Children's Day program was presented and there was a record attendance for the year. An evangelistic service, which was largely attended, was held in the evening.

Former members and friends of the church were visitors during the day.

LEGION WOMEN HELP WIFE OF ONE OF LATE FIVE SULLIVAN BOYS

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, June 21.—The Squirrel Hill Post of the American Legion today sent Mrs. Katherine Sullivan, wife of one of the five brothers who lost their lives when the cruiser Jeanneau went down, some war bonds to "help her out."

R. M. Click, chairman of the post's Americanization committee, explained the gift with "we thought we would help out this lady."

Mrs. Sullivan is the widow of Albert Sullivan, who with his brothers George, Francis, Joseph and Madison, of Waterloo, Iowa, enlisted a month after Pearl Harbor and served on the Jeanneau until it was sunk at the height of the battle for control of the Solomon Islands.

New 'Foamglas' Floats Like Cork And Is Fireproof

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, June 21.—A new type of opaque glass that floats like cork and can be used as the buoyant element in the construction of life boats, life rafts, life preservers and pontoon bridge supports, was recently developed here.

The new product, called "foamglas," also has valuable insulating qualities. One of its chief values lies in its weight—only 10 pounds per cubic foot. It is odorless, fireproof and vermin proof.

Certain Federal agencies have interested themselves in the glass as an alternate material for cork, balsa wood, cellular rubber and kapok, all largely imported. Production of the product already is under way.

Foamglas can be sawed or drilled with ordinary tools and because of its closed-cell structure, will float indefinitely.

It is produced by firing ordinary glass which has been mixed with a small quantity of pure carbon.

Notify Company Of Dangerous Holes

Council convened formally in city hall today and ordered Solicitor Robert White to notify the Hetz Construction company that there are dangerous holes, some 30 feet deep, on the property of the old rubber company. Seventh ward, now the Hetz company property. The city has ordered the hazardous pits be filled.

Safety Director D. O. Davies brought the problem before council. He asserted that a child may fall into one of the pits and suffer death.

If a man earns much, he is kept poor by the income tax; if he has great wealth salted away, he may pay no tax at all.

AUXILIARY MEETS

Ladies Auxiliary of the Earl J. Watt Post, American Legion, unit No. 638, held their meeting Monday evening in the Legion Home. Hilda Lago, poppy chairlady, gave a report on poppy day sales, when 1,500 poppies, made by non-compensated veterans in Aspinwall hospital, were sold. In behalf of the unit, she thanked the Girl Scouts, Junior Auxiliary girls and others who made the poppy day a success. Laura Seltzer, unit president, explained the new club plan.

An article from the Reader's Digest, entitled, "My Blood Is In the War," was read by Anna Ball, in connection with the blood donation drive which began today in New Castle, when the Red Cross Mobile Unit arrives. A drive is being planned by the unit to collect old victrola records for salvage, to provide the army and navy with new records. Mae Pitts will have charge of collections in Mt. Jackson, and Ada Scott in Bessemer.

A fund of $25 has been received for cigarettes to be sent to the armed forces overseas. Further contributions will be received until July 4.

A letter of appreciation was read from Phyllis Anderson of Bessemer, who won the essay award presented by the auxiliary.

Report of the Four County Council meeting held in Beaver on May 27 was given by the delegate, Anna Ball. Others attending were Mona Reed, Laura Seltzer and Helen Kinney. The next council meeting will be in July in Beaver Falls, for the election of officers.

New auxiliary officers were elected as follows: President, Helen Kinney; first vice president, Ida Anderson; second vice president, Sara Belle Gibson; secretary, Ruth Bradley; treasurer, Florence Kanengies; historian, Hilda Lago; chaplain, Mae Pitts; sergeant-at-arms, Laura Seltzer; color bearer, Ada Scott.

Lunch was served by the social committee, Nettie Wertz and Ida Anderson. The next meeting will be July 12, in the Legion Home.

MT. JACKSON NOTES

Private John L. Pitts of Fort Davis, N. C., is spending a ten-day furlough at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Pitts.

AROUND CITY HALL

Although City Assessor John Cartwright said that he believed that Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Cox should pay 35 per cent of an assessment of $7,300, for an old office building of the Lehigh Portland Cement company, which they propose to convert into a residence, Safety Director D. O. Davies, Mayor Charles B. Mayne and Finance Director Elbert Hoyland thought different. They decided $2,000 assessment was plenty to pay.

It has been indicated during the past several meetings of council that once a property-owner had been notified to remove a nuisance or hazard and he fails to do so council will act. Members propose to have torn down dwellings which owners will not repair but yet don't want to remove. The city can have them torn down.

REPLIES TO DAIRY FIRM

Solicitor R. M. White today informed the Rieck McJunkin company that he still believes that his opinion, rendered 20 years ago, is valid. The city has assessed the dairy company not only as a whole-

Boy, 13, Admits Brutal Stabbing Of Glassport Tot

"Didn't Like" Two-Year-Old Child He Stabbed 11 Times
And Threw Over Hill

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, June 21.—A 13-year-old Glassport boy today admitted stabbing a two-and-a-half year-old neighbor's child 11 times simply because "he didn't like him," Allegheny county detectives disclosed.

The tiny victim, Bernard Pacewicz, son of Mrs. Walter Pacewicz, of Glassport, was discovered over the week-end lying on a hillside with eight knife wounds in his neck and three in his right side. He was rushed to McKeesport hospital near death.

County Detective Joseph Sauter said Julius Lutkus, 13, also of nearby Glassport, told him he planned the attack on the child two days before he could finally put it into execution.

The youth was quoted as telling Glassport Police Chief Clarence Urbanski he stabbed the child after Bernard allegedly threw a stone at him while they were walking up a hill.

"I didn't like him so I took a knife from my pocket and stabbed Bernard in the neck. Then I knifed him in the side and back and tossed him over the hill," the reported confession continued.

He is at heart a tyrant if he gets a laugh from employees by embarrassing one of them who is afraid to talk back.

INJUNS DIVIDE WITH WHITESOX

By JOHN CASHMAN
(International News Service Sports Writer)

NEW YORK, June 21.—

Rumblings and tremors usually associated with volcanic eruptions are being heard in the National League today. A pair of teams who were prophesied to be about the least explosive in the loop—the Philadelphia Phillies and Pittsburgh Pirates—are now making earth-shaking strides toward the pennant.

The coming of the Pirates was heralded yesterday when the Bucs forced the Cincinnati Reds out of third place by taking both ends of a twin bill, 5 to 4 and 4 to 2. In both contests, the Pirates staged eighth-inning rebellions when they were two runs behind.

Homer Does It
Bill Baker's long double scored Bob Elliott with the winning run in the opener and Elbie Fletcher sewed up the nightcap with a three-run homer to give Ritz Sewell his eighth victory of the season.

The Pittsburgh defeats of Cincinnati also helped to catapult the amazing Philadelphia Phillies into fourth place. The Phils, who are amazing for 1943 because they finished 32½ games behind St. Louis in 1942, helped themselves along a little by brushing the Boston Braves, 13 to 7 and 7 to 0.

Trailing by two runs going into the seventh inning of the opener, the Phillies beat four Braves twirlers into drooling idiocy with a ten-run uprising in the apterpiece. Schoolboy Rowe held the Braves to three singles and boosted the winning margin with a home run of his own. The Brooklyn Dodgers strengthened their hold on second place with an 8 to 7 triumph over the New York Giants. The Dodgers tied up the contest in the eighth and won in the tenth.

Yanks-Nats Split
Washington Senators threw a scare into the New York Yankees by taking the first outcast, 5 to 3 but the Yankees returned to take the nightcap, 7 to 6. The Senators capped the opener with a four-run rally in the sixth, during which twirler Charlie Wensloff was banished for throwing his glove to the dust in a fit of rage.

The St. Louis Browns took both ends of a twin bill from the Detroit Tigers, 6 to 3 and 5 to 4, largely through home runs by Chet Laabs and Harland Clift. A Sunday crowd of 27,595 watched the Tigers drop below the 500 mark.

The Boston Red Sox took both halves of a double-header from the Philadelphia Athletics, 7 to 3 and 6 to 5. Babe Bame clinched the opener with his first home run in a Red Sox uniform, while the Sox came from behind with a two-run rally in the eighth inning to put the rightcap on ice.

The Chicago White Sox and the Cleveland Indians split their double bill, the White Sox winning the first, 6 to 5 and losing the second, 7 to 2. Jim Bagby went the route for the Indians in the nightcap, allowing six hits and establishing himself as the first Cleveland hurler in the last seven games to twirl nine full innings.

Cards-Cubs Divide
The Chicago Cubs took a 2 to 1 five-inning victory in the second half of their double-header with the St. Louis Cardinals, after prevailing the first game to the Cards, 10 to 8.

Three errors in the eighth inning by Chicago second baseman Ed (Stinky) Stanky helped the Cards overcome a 9 to 4 deficit with six runs in the opener. Bill Nicholson Cubs right fielder, hits his sixth and seventh homers in this game each with one man aboard.

PRO GRID LOOP 8 TEAM LEAGUE

Philadelphia-Pittsburgh Merger Okayed; Boston Gets
1944 Franchise

(International News Service)
CHICAGO, June 21.—The National Football league squared away today to play next fall as an eight club circuit after admitting Boston to membership, but not as a playing member until the 1944 season.

Ted Collins, radio commentator and manager of Kate Smith, was awarded the Boston franchise, but will not become an active participant in the pro league until next December when he will attend the annual draft meeting.

Table 2 Applications
Two other franchise applications were tabled until the December meeting. One was filed by Don Ameche, film and radio star, and the other by Charles Murray, Buffalo, N. Y., promoter. Ameche wanted to put a team in Los Angeles and Murray in Buffalo.

Frank Mandell of Chicago, who also wanted a franchise for Boston but did not wish to enter a team application after the war, withdrew his application.

The withdrawal of the Cleveland Rams last December for the 1943 season left the pro league with nine clubs and the merger of the Philadelphia Eagles and the Pittsburgh Steelers authorized at the league meeting just ended cut the playing members down to eight.

The two restored the circuit to a geographical balance with four clubs in the western division—Green Bay, Detroit, Chicago Bears and Chicago Cardinals—and four in the eastern—New York, Brooklyn, Washington and the Pittsburgh-Philadelphia combination.

LAWRENCE INDIES AWARDED FORFEIT

Action in the City Baseball league yesterday was confined to Lee avenue field where the Moose and Shenango Pottery divided a twin bill. The scores were 8-7, 5-3.

The Lawrence Indies-Elders clash, booked for Mahoning field, went to the Indies via forfeit. Manager "Boss" Zider of the Indies reported that the Elders were unable to field a team and the umpire in chief awarded his club the triumph.

Potters Win, 8-7
On Lee avenue field the Moose and Pottery played two of the most thrilling setoffs of the season. The Potters, trailing 6-2 in the third frame of the opener, punched across a deuce in the third and fourth to deadlock the count.

In the fifth, the Potters marched ahead with a single tally. Ostrowski's two bagger drove in what turned out to be the winning margin in the 8-7 affair.

In the nightcap, the second place Moose built a 5-0 edge by the close of the fifth. The Potters scored all their runs in the sixth. Chialfallo hurried for the winners while Shaw and Mrozek divided the flinging assignment for the losers. Each club batted out five hits.

A half dozen doubles were smashed in the first clash as the rivals rapped 27 hits between them.

FAMOUS KELLY
Harry Kelley was famous in Memphis twenty years ago because he pitched double headers. He is back there again this season.

HITS IN CLUTCH
They rocked along into the last half of the 13th when he found himself at the plate again with Don Kolloway on second and ready to come tearing for the plate again with any help at all. Appling met that situation with a hit that brought home the winning marker.

Both of these elderly gents have been among baseball's heroes for a long time—among the best in the business.

Appling went through most of his team's games with a 262 average last season, and while that is nothing to throw hats in the air about, he still can hold down that job, and in times there is a premium on tried and true veterans of his kind.

WHAT A DIFFERENCE
Eight National League players of 1942 hit 300 or better. In 1943 there were 32 of them, though the league had a dozen clubs.

INDIAN ROOKIE
Mike Rocco, first baseman, is a new member of the Cleveland Indians. Rocco, 27, came up from Buffalo. He broke into organized baseball with Portsmouth, O., in 1935 and has made many minor league stops since. He had his best year with Nashville in 1940, hitting .305. (International)

Cronin-Appling Still Can Hit

Cronin's Two Pinch Homers
Among Standout Feats
Of 1943 Season

By LAWTON CARVER
(International News Service Sports Editor)

NEW YORK, June 21.—Joe Cronin and Luke Appling, a pair of elderly shortstops as baseball ages go, have belted their way into the headlines with performances unique in this year of light, unimpressive hitting.

Cronin, manager of the Red Sox, and no longer to be considered the active youngster of yore, really plastered himself up there in the big type. Ted Williams, the erstwhile young fence buster of his club, now slugging in the Air Corps for Uncle Sam, never did much better than the boss Thursday.

Homers Twice
Cronin put himself in as a pinch-hitter in each game of a double-header with the Philadelphia Athletics and on each occasion delivered a home run with two on. The only thing that kept him from doing better for the day was that it wasn't a triple-header. That and the fact that only two instead of three were on the sacks.

The point is, Cronin, who soon will be 37 and admittedly no longer can step around at short as he would like to, still can hit that pitching in this year and show the younger gent on his club how to slant them out in the clutch.

Appling, 34-year-old shortfielder for the White Sox, delivered a couple of telling blows during a hectic afternoon as his club beat the St. Louis Browns.

He came up in the ninth with the Sox trailing, 3 to 1, and promptly smacked a two-bagger that sent in two runs to knot it.

They rocked along into the last half of the 13th when he found himself at the plate again with Don Kolloway on second and ready to come tearing for the plate again with any help at all. Appling met that situation with a hit that brought home the winning marker.

Gob Bob Lobs One

Hubbell's 40 is in his 16th year with the New York Giants and 20th in organized baseball.

August Rodney (Gus) Mancuso, who has been a Giant catcher in and out since 1933, was born in 1905 so he won't be challenging any of the rooks around the bases.

Other aging National leaguers set for another campaign are Dolf Camilli, 35, with the Dodgers; Johnny Cooney, 44, with the Dodgers; Leo Durocher, 37, who plays some for the Dodgers; Ernie Lombardi, 35, with the Braves; Lloyd Waner, 37, with the Dodgers; and his brother, Paul, 40 in April, also with the Dodgers; Paul Derringer, 36, with the Cubs; Fred Fitzsimmons, 42, with the Dodgers; Buck Newson, 34, with the Dodgers; Lou Wernke, 34, with the Cubs; and Whit Wyatt, 33, with the Dodgers.

Simmons Back

In the American league, the old-timers brigade is headed by Al Simmons of the Red Sox, who is 39; Joe Eving, of the Indians, also 39; and Johnny Niggeling, the Brownie hurler, almost 39.

In the class of 37 we have Roger Cramer of the Tigers; Mike Ryba, the all-around star of the Red Sox; Bob Johnson, Washington Club and Rick Ferrell, catcher of the Browns.

Among the old-timers in the junior loop are Tommy Bridges, 36, Detroit pitcher; Joe Cronin, 36, Red Sox shortstop and manager; Bill Dickey and Rolfe Hemsley, Yankee catchers, both 36; Joe Kuhel, White Sox first sacker; Al Smith, Cleveland pitcher, 36; and Thornton Lee, White Sox moundman, who is 35.

Wonder if any of these veterans are modern followers of Ponce de Leon?

Of Stock Market

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, June 21.—The stock market gave way today under the weight of bearish sentiment. Stocks, especially the heavy industry group, lost nearly a half point in the averages in the first hour alone. Volume was small, however, only 129,000 shares being traded in the first hour.

U. S. Steel and Bethlehem each lost fractionally. The motor section was off generally, with Chrysler and General Motors down 1-4 and 1-2 respectively.

Coppers, which had started at a slight advance, slipped along with the rest of the list in the second hour. Rails and rail equipment also joined in the downturn.

Leaders to lose ground included International T. & T., Paramount, Warner Brothers, International Harvester, N. Y. Central, Southern Pacific, Murray, Goodyear and U. S. Rubber. Among the new stocks, that showed gains were Pepsi Cola and International Nickel.

The bond market activity paralleled that in stock and was in the doldrums.

Friedrichshaven Hit By Bombers

Southwest German City, Is Reported Attacked By Allied Fliers

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)
LONDON, June 21.—Allied bombers during the night were reported to have carried out a series of short, heavy raids on the southwest German city of Friedrichshaven, near the Swiss border.

The Evening Standard, in a Berne dispatch, said fires and explosions were visible in Switzerland. Friedrichshaven, 45 miles northeast of Zurich, is on the eastern shore of the lake of Constance Bodensee, which separates southwest Germany from Switzerland.

The Swiss cities of Zurich, Berne and Basle had air raid alerts at 1:00 a. m. this morning.

The German radio announced that British bombers attacked "points in the southwest part of the Reich." So-called "nuisance flights." Also were made over northern Germany, the broadcast said, adding that "bombs were dropped in isolated instances, but did no damage."

No Communique On Raid

The attack was believed to be one of the numerous Royal Air Force raids which the air ministry does not publicize. No communique is expected.

The air ministry, failing to mention any raids on Germany during the night, announced that four Mosquito bombers on patrol destroyed or damaged four giant Nazi flying boats during the night.

One Blohm and Voss-138 long-range reconnaissance flying boat was shot down over the Bay of Biscay. The Masquitos then pressed inland and set fire to three out of four other Blohm and Voss ships on Lake Biscay, 80 miles south of the Grande river estuary.

Raid Near Amiens

The night sortie came after another heavy RAF raid on the Ploeghe field near Amiens, France, the third in four days. Boston bombers and Spitfires beat off strong Nazi fighter opposition to rain explosives on airfield buildings and dispersal areas. One Ploeghe-Wulf fighter was shot down and another was damaged by the raiders.

In simultaneous attacks on Axis shipping off the Dutch coast, typhoon fighter-bombers damaged two trawlers and a minesweeper while Spitfires damaged an escort vessel and two smaller boats. Four British fighters failed to return from the day's operations.

The daylight sweeps came in the wake of Saturday's heavy assault on the Schneider armament works at Le Creusot and a divisionary attack on an electric transformer station at Mont Chaunin, five miles from Le Creusot.

INJURES HIP

Harry Isaac, age 33 years, 128 Center Way, fell and injured his hip about 3:40 a. m., this morning, and is confined to the New Castle hospital.

QUIET WEEK-END

Police reported today the week-end was quiet. Only five persons were arrested. None were taken into custody on serious charges.
